FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Elections Office Seeks Bilingual Workers for 2018 Election Cycle

The Hernando County Elections Office is looking for civic minded, bilingual individuals who would be willing to work during the upcoming Primary and General Election Cycle. Although there is no requirement to have bilingual workers Supervisor Shirley Anderson feels this is one more way to serve our voters.

During the Primary and General Elections staffing in the Elections Office increases from eight full time staff to over 300 Election Workers who serve on the front lines of democracy for Early Voting and Election Day. The 2018 Elections will be held on:

- Primary Election-August 28, 2018
- General Election- November 6, 2018
