FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Voting Rocks!

Have you recently noticed any painted rocks showing up around Hernando County? The trend is growing as seen by the numerous Facebook groups entitled Spring Hill Rocks, Brooksville Rocks and Hernando County Rocks.

Supervisor of Elections Shirley Anderson first saw painted rocks while visiting Polk County and decided it could be another way to help promote the vote in Hernando County. After joining the Facebook groups locally she decided to host a rock painting party.

Come join us on May 17, 2017 to paint rocks for our 'Voting Rocks' kickoff event. We will be painting rocks that will be hidden throughout Hernando County. The rocks have been donated by Cemex and painting supplies will be provided. However, if you have any painting supplies, sharpies, nail polish, etc. please feel free to bring and/or donate.

What: Paint a Rock- Voting Rocks

Where: Supervisor of Elections Office

7443 Forest Oaks Blvd. Spring Hill, FL 34606

When: May 17, 2017

10:00am-3:00pm

“My vision is to have several hundred patriotic rocks painted to hide before Memorial Day. May is also Armed Forces Month so it will be a nice way to show our support for our active military as well as those who have paid the ultimate sacrifice,” stated Supervisor Anderson. “Please drop by and paint a rock or two. A list of parks will be provided and you can hide at your convenience.”
